UPS AND DOWNS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Church Street has been busy. On Thursday, a couple of changes took place which we note in passing. In the two top pictures a Denham bulldozer removed an old homestead in record time as it bowed to Father Time. It left the gaping hole in the ground.

At right, Mattapoisett's new police station rises and the roof trusses in the foreground await installation.

SEPTEMBER 13, 1988-by DCJ

Rochester Selectman Fred Underhill met with the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen to discuss 18 months of work that has resulted to date in a new Proposed Charter for Plymouth County Government. The purpose of the new charter, Mr. Underhill said, is to provide the towns with greater representation so that the larger communities do not completely monopolize the county government and to provide self-determination which will place the function of the County more in the hands of the people who live there. He said that Mattapoisett Selectman John DeCosta, who was representing the Plymouth County Advisory Board, had done a "super job" in this effort. Mr. Underhill was chairman of the Charter Committee.

He explained that there are 3 or 4 major changes that will take place if the Proposed Charter meets voter approval. A change from 3 to 5 County Commissioners will result in more representation on the Commission and there has been a lot of feeling that more representation was needed, according to Mr. Underhill. If approved, Commissioners would be elected county-wide effective in 1990. Salaries for them will then be controlled by the County rather than from Boston. A 15-member County Council elected on a non-partisan basis for 2 year terms would have more power to deal with a budget that would be submitted by the Commissioners. Another change would be that the County Councils would have the authority to review the charter every 5 years to see if changes are necessary. As it stands, the County Government structure has continued from 1685 under the General Court of the Province of Massachusetts Bay and later the Commonwealth of Massachusetts until 1826 when part of the duties were transferred to 5 appointed County Commissioners. In 1835, the people were allowed to elect the Commissioners. It has changed very little until the present without the legitimacy of a charter and continuing under the authority of the Boston-based legislature.

Mr. Underhill said that, on the negative side, there will be salaries for 2 more Commissioners who draw $16,000 to $17,000 per year but he said there is the possibility that Registry fees can be increased to lessen the burden on the towns who are now assessed a yearly amount to operate the County.

Mr. Underhill said that the hope is that the towns of Plymouth County can pool their needs and cooperate on expensive services that entail planning. Projects that concern more than one town can be run as a unit with as many as 5 or 6 towns involved so that projects can be undertaken in concert.

"I think we have come up with a pretty good thing for our communities if it flies", said Mr. Underhill.

Mr. DeCosta heartily agreed and praised Mr. Underhill's leadership in the months' long effort.

The Charter will be placed on the ballot as a result of the passage of House Bill No. 5662.

said that the town has asked the developer of a proposed 58 unit condominium Park Street Housing Project, Mr. Paul Cusson, President of Pleasant Street Development Corp. of New Bedford, to consider an alternative such as a 25 to 30 single family development on the site. The development known as the "Beacon of Mattapoisett" is proposed for a location off Park Street that consists of 7 to 9 buildable areas, Mr. Talty said. Through Mattapoisett consultant, Mr. William Scothey, the town requested that Mr. Cusson look at the single family plan. Mr. Cusson, according to Mr. Talty, was receptive and appeared optimistic that it would work. He agreed to work up a cost analysis of the single family proposal.

Mr. Talty said the feeling in Mattapoisett is that condos are not acceptable; that the town is not opposed to affordable housing but that the town wants to retain the single family concept. This feeling is shared by the Board of Selectmen, Mr. Talty said, and 308 people have presented a petition with this view.

EMTs WEEK

Lt. James Santos, representing the Mattapoisett Police Department, was presented with a Proclamation which recognized the life-saving service of the Mattapoisett EMTs and set aside the week of September 18 to 24 as EMT Services Week. The Selectmen commended the group for "its outstanding job".

for the past several months to evaluate development trends in the community. Mr. Ketcham has completed a Community Diagnosis Report and has suggested several alternative Land Use Plans for our consideration. We would like to get the community's recommendations and comments on these plans."

The workshop format will include a slide presentation of the results of the Community Diagnosis and the recommendations of the alternative Land Use Concepts. Following the presentation, groups of 6 to 8, seated at small tables, will be asked to comment on the plans using a Summary Policy Planning Chart. After an appropriate discussion period the chairperson of each table will be asked to report the table's conclusions to all workshop attendees.

"This format has been most successful", commented Consultant Burk Ketcham. "I have used it in a number of Massachusetts communities where it was essential to give all participants an opportunity to express their views. Based on my prior experience, I would expect attendance to be around 1000 or more residents."

The Land Use Concept Plans cover recommendations for residential, business, industrial, water area and open space uses. Some of the concepts favor flexible development controls and special natural resources protection regulations. Two of the plans suggest a seven mile Sippican Trail which eye talk

Q. My husband and I are both nearsighted. Can we prevent this vision problem in our child?

A. Nearsighted people, as you know, can see clearly up close but not far away.

Although nearsightedness is a common problem, its cause is not known for certain. Prevention, then, is not clear cut but optometrists can, in some cases, prescribe treatment that may help stop or slow its progression.

For example, mild prescription glasses to be worn only when doing close work might be prescribed to make it easier for the eyes to focus. Or contact lenses might be prescribed, since they sometimes tend to slow or stop nearsightedness.

Your best bet to control nearsightedness is to start your child with annual eye examinations at age three.

"When is a good age to start kids in competitive sports?"

"My son is totally non-competitive in school - should I be worried?"

"My two children are always trying to out-compete one another for my attention - what should I do?"

These and any other questions about competition will be addressed in the first Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club meeting of the school year on September 22nd at 7:30 p.m. at Old Hammondtown School Auditorium.

Introducing a new format, the P.T.C. will begin with a brief business meeting and move to a panel presentation on the topic of Kids and Competition.

it? What effect does it have on our children?

Dr. David M. Callahan, a clinical psychologist with a group practice, Plymouth Psychological Associates in Wareham, will discuss the positive and negative aspects of competition as relates to athletics and academics.

Susan Bellevue, School Adjustment Counselor at Center and Old Hammondtown Schools, will also be on our panel to answer questions and be "devil's advocate" to both our speakers, posing "What If ....?" questions.

The panel will then be open to any questions you might have.

Competition is an extremely important and confusing issue confronting parents and teachers. Our panel of experts has extensive experience working with school age children and will hopefully help us define the fine line between pushing and preparing kids for today's world.

This promises to be a stimulating, provocative and educational evening. We are hoping it will entice parents to come!

Vessel Towing Assistance

ENDORSEMENT REQUIRED

Vessel operators towing a disabled vessel for a consideration now must have a special towing assistance endorsement.

A person simply doing a favor for a fellow mariner for no consideration is not covered by the new federal regulation. It went into effect September 15, 1988.

The statute does not exempt public vessels. Therefore, a municipal harbor patrol without properly licensed personnel cannot offer towing for a fee.

Exempt from the special towing assistance endorsement requirement is anyone who holds a license as an Uninspected Towing Vessel Operator of license as Master or Mate of Inspected Vessels over 200 tons.

No special sea service or towing experience is needed to add the endorsement to an existing license, but a Coast Guard examination is required.

For further information visit, write or call Northeast Maritime, 26 Water Street, Fairhaven, MA. 02719; phone 992-4025.

Yiiihaa! Grab your partners and twirl on down to Old Hammondtown School October 1st at 4:00 for an old-fashioned harvest hoedown! OctoberFirst, the first Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club fund-raiser of the school year, promises to be a real family affair, celebrating the end of a steamy summer and the arrival of autumn.

Your children will love the outdoor events: pony rides, sack races, three-legged races, dunking for apples, and face painting.

You'll all love the hearty spaghetti supper we have planned, the raffles, and the door prize. Supper will be served from 4:00-6:00 and a homemade dessert table will have a wide array of irresistible goodies available for purchase..

Have a secret family recipe for apple, peach or pumpkin pie? Great! Bake it up and bring it along. We are having a pie contest! Judges' names will be drawn from a hat and they will decide who walks away with the three first prizes!

Don't leave yet. There's more!

At 6:30 we'll fold up the tables, clear the floor, and everyone will have a chance to square dance with Caller Paul LeTourneau. Look for our celebrity squares with some of our favorite townspeople pairing up for a special dance.

Tickets for this fund-raiser are $7.50 for adults, $3.00 for children and $5.00 for seniors. Money from this event will help sponsor a new Parent-Teachers' Club program, the S.O.S. Fund (Supporting Our Schools). This fund provides $500.00 to Center School teachers and $500.00 to Old Hammondtown teachers to use for en-

Emergency Medical Services

The best method for treating an emergency is prevention.

As part of its celebration of national Emergency Medical Services Week, September 18-24, the Tobey Hospital Emergency Department is helping area residents do just that with a free packet of information on preventing medical emergencies. The packet is available by calling 295-0880, ext. 205.

The packet includes a number of useful tips, ranging from how to "childproof" your home against accidents, to bicycle safety and trauma prevention.

partment that never need to have happened," said Drew Remignanti, M.D., chairman of Emergency Medicine at Tobey. "Prevention is often as simple as the proper storage of household cleaners or the use of seat-belts when driving."

Dr. Remignanti emphasized that knowing proper first aid techniques for a medical emergency is also important -- and can literally mean the difference between life and death for the injured person.

The free emergency tips packet includes basic first aid instruction, including information on cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Tobey regularly offers basic first aid and CPR courses and conducts an annual Pediatric Trauma seminar for parents, outlining accident prevention and emergency care for children.

Tobey's Emergency Department also maintains a "Poisin-dex", which lists recommended treatments for ingestion of a wide range of poisons. Area residents can call the Emergency Department and obtain advice on exactly what to do for a poisoning incident.

When area families do need emergency services, Tobey's Emergency Department is unique in the area because it is entirely staffed by physicians who are both residency-trained and board-certified in emergency medicine. As emergency specialists, these physicians have completed training not only in an Emergency Department, but also in specialties such as surgery, obstetrics, orthopedics, critical care and others.

Most emergency nurses at Tobey have also received extensive training in their field and many have earned national certification in emergency nursing.

The expertise of the Tobey Emergency Staff benefits the community in many ways. Tobey physicians provide medical direction, via radio, for area emergency medical technicians (EMTs) and paramedics, and con-

Letter to the Editor

THIS IS IT! On September 27th each voter can assure that Mattapoisett gets all it deserves from programs for the elderly. Vote "YES" on the question authorizing funds for a part-time, paid professional director for the Council on Aging. This appropriation, if approved, amounts to less than 2 cents on the tax rate - which is only $2.00 on the tax bill for $100,000 assessment.

The people of Mattapoisett can no longer depend on volunteers, no matter how dedicated, to keep up with the programs affecting our elderly. We need your vote - and that of your neighbors. VOTE "YES".

COASTAL CLEAN-UPS

As part of a nationwide Coastweek celebration, the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies is proud to sponsor two local coastal clean-ups. Act locally, as you join a nationwide movement to clean up our coastline. People from Maine to Florida, California to Massachusetts are putting on their old sneakers, grabbing a trash bag and hiking our beaches, marshes and rocky shores working to make our coasts a better place for people and wildlife.

On Sunday, September 25th, join us for Flotsam and Jetsam, a seaside litter hike beginning at the Lloyd Center at 430 Potomska Road in South Dartmouth at 1:30. We will learn about the effects of litter on the coastal ecosystem as we clean up the salt marshes and rocky shores of the area. No pre-registration is required, bring your friends.

Marsh Clean-up Canoe Trip will be held Saturday, October 1st, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to clean up areas hard to reach on foot. Some canoes are available, but please call 990-0505 to pre-register.

Be sure to wear boots or old sneakers that can get wet, and dress for the weather

CHINESE ACROBATS
PERFORM AT BCC OCTOBER 5

Area families can enjoy the daring Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats and Magicians of Taipei performing at Bristol Community College on October 5th at 7 p.m. The show includes breathtaking feats of balance, amazing acrobats and magicians, a fleet of jugglers, kung fu and chi-kung artists and traditional Chinese dance and color.

But the key to the show's charm is the human chemistry between the audience and the 22 warm, enthusiastic artists who seem to get a kick out of the oohs and ahs they elicit, according to the Dallas-

STAR GAZING FREE AT BCC

Star gazers can catch the best view of Mars since 1971 and more at Bristol Community College on September 21 and 28. Laboratory Technician David Owen will host the viewing at 8:45 p.m. on both evenings as a free public service right from the roof of the planetarium. Owen will also help residents view Saturn and the Andromeda Galaxy.

"We've designed these evenings for the enjoyment of the many residents fascinated with our surrounding galaxies. The fall will be a particularly good time to see nearby constellations, and on a clear evening I would be able to point out many groups of interesting celestial bodies," said Owen.

Although everyone is welcome, space is limited. Anyone interested should call Claudette Daluz to reserve a space or for more information at 678-2811, ext. 207.

Flea Market

September 24th will be the second Annual Flea Market at the Long Plain United Methodist Church, located at 1215 Main Street in Acushnet.

We have 60 spaces available. Spaces may be rented for $15.00. For more information call Pete at 995-0213 or Vern at 748-0395.

In conjunction with the Flea Market, the church is sponsoring a CHOLESTEROL TESTING PROGRAM. Come on down and find out what your "NUMBER" is. The Boston Cholesterol Screening Group, Inc. will be doing the testing. As well as giving you your number they will also give out valuable information and answer your questions. Cost for this very important information is $6.00 per person.

Also featured at the Flea Market will be a white elephant table, a home-baked goods table (with lots of great tasting food baked by church members and friends); also a snack bar with muffins and coffee, burgers, hot dogs, chips and coke.

So, come on out for a day in the country -- shop, have lunch, learn your number. See you there!

Rain date is October 1st.

Constitution Week

The New Bedford Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution reminds us that this week marks the two hundred first anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution. The ideals upon which this document are based are reinforced each day by the success of the system to which it gave birth. But the system cannot function without an enlightened public. Know your rights, freedoms and duties as a citizen. Study your Constitution. Defend it and preserve it.

OCTOBER CLASS SIGN-UPS
Now being taken

As many of you know, I've been running classes for novice photographers for some three years. Now, with summer behind us, it's time to form a new group for the next sessions, beginning in October. We'll meet on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 (for six weeks) and we'll cover a lot of ground .....filters, night photography, how to handle difficult light situations, what you need and what you don't need to be a competent shooter and much more. The group has fun and I'll promise you, you'll be a better (and more comfortable photographer) when it's all over. If you're just starting out OR are unhappy with your work or are just not confident with your camera, come join us. Class size is strictly limited, so please sign up NOW.

Thank You,
Hal

TEACHER COMPLETES UNDERACHIEVEMENT SYNDROME INSTITUTE

Carol Young, a special needs resource teacher at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School, has completed the Underachievement Syndrome Institute presented by Dr. Sylvia Rimm at Southeastern Massachusetts University. She has completed this in conjunction with a Horace Mann project targeting the underachieving student at the Junior High.

Underachievement is defined as a discrepancy between a child's school performance and some index of his/her ability. Typically, these students are bright, even gifted, yet do not do well in school. They can appear disorganized, forget homework, of small amulets and other tomb objects of beauty and significance will be on display.

Scientific aspects of mummification will be explained by means of x-rays and CAT-scans of the Museum's seven mummies, which were done as a collaborative project with Brigham and Women's Hospital.

"Mummies and Magic" represents the Museum of Fine Arts' first comprehensive exhibition of its Egyptian collection, the third most important outside Egypt. Only the Metropolitan Museum in New York and the British Museum in London hold higher rank. Many of the 350 objects in the exhibition will be on view for the first time. Normally, only 15 percent of the collection is on view.

On October 6th the bus will leave from the Theater entrance of the Whaling Museum at 5:30 p.m. and return by 11:00 p.m. The cost for the evening is $40. for Whaling Museum members and $45. for non-members. This price includes transportation, admission to the Museum, a 3-course dinner at the Museum Restaurant, and guided tour of the exhibition.

Jazz at Zeiterion

CAB CALLOWAY AND CHRIS CALLOWAY

Cab Calloway, the "Hi-De-Ho Man", and his talented daughter, Chris Calloway, will perform at New Bedford's Zeiterion Theatre on Saturday, October 1st, at 8:00 p.m. Their high-energy jazz concert is sponsored by AT&T. Tickets are priced at $24.00, $22.00 and $20.00 with a $2.00 discount for senior citizens and students. For more information on tickets, group packages and season subscribers, call the Zeiterion Box Office at 994-2900.

Indisputably one of the 20th century's show business greats, Cab Calloway certainly has that high-stepping energy. After half a century as an entertainer, he still travels around the world performing his music with his well-known finesse.

Born in Rochester, New York on Christmas Day in 1907, Cab discovered the world of show business while he was attending Crane Law School in Chicago. He soon gave up his plans for a legal career, and began leading the popular Chicago group, The Alabamians. Their success brought Cab to New York City where he landed a starring role in his first Broadway show, "Connie's Hot Chocolates". Soon after this smash hit, Cab was signed to headline Harlem's legendary Cotton Club. He has appeared in over a dozen Broadway shows with his most recent appearances in "Hello, Dolly!" with Pearl Bailey, a revival of "The Pajama Game" with Barbara McNair and the national tours of "Eubie" and "Bubbling Brown Sugar".

Chris Calloway has definitely inherited her legendary old man's pizzazz. Even though she grew up learning show business from an expert, she still has paid her dues like any other hardworking performer. Along the way she has hosted a syndicated gossip show in Hollywood, knocked out BBC-TV audiences at The Ritz in London, starred in "The Doctors" soap opera for two years, crooned in the Catskills and performed on Broadway in the revival of "Pajama Game".

The Zeiterion Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street in historic, downtown New Bedford.
